The first $14,400 of a person's contribution will be considered designated for the primary election (up to a maximum of $2,400 per Committee); the second $28,800 of a person's contribution will be considered designated for the general election (up to a maximum of $2,400 per Committee). Notwithstanding the allocation formula above, any contributor may designate his or her contribution for a particular participant. Please designate here if different from above: _____

The allocation formula above may change if any contributor makes a contribution that, when allocated, would exceed the amount that the contributor may lawfully give to any participant. For contributions made after a candidate's primary election date, a maximum of $2,400 per person will be allocated to the candidate, with all such amounts considered designated for the general election.

Please join us during the AAJ convention at the Committee for a Better Future reception on July 11th from 4:30pm to 6:00pm in room 306 at the Vancouver Convention Centre where you will have an opportunity to meet many of these candidates.

Contributions and gifts to Committee for a Better Future are voluntary and not deductible for federal income tax purposes. Federal law requires the committee to use its best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 in an election cycle.
